

These two graphs show the total number of rats and stoats captured at the swamp over the past two years.

Note the big spike in rat numbers following the mega mast seeding in the winter of 2019 and the sharp rise in stoat numbers following that event.

